France for the administration of Egypt. The Egyptian courts disallowed the claim, and in paying the bill Great Britain practically acquires ownership of the conquered country. When the Egyptian arrangement was made Great Britain, in what has been regarded as a weak moment, left the Egyptian courts in full standing. That concession has now led to her being mulet for the Sudan expenses, but the French are realizing that their statesmen made a mistake in combating the British claim for the Sudan affair.

The boundary dispute between Great Britain and Venezuela has been the occasion of a great diplomatic triumph by the United States. Thereby the name of the Secretary of State, Mr. Olney, will be held in lasting honor. The dispute is referred to a court of arbitration mainly through that statesman's diplomacy, reinforced by a strong message to Congress from President Cleveland. Largely as an outcome of the Venezuelan matter there have been brought about negotiations, with great promise of early success, for a treaty between Great Britain and the United States, providing for the settlement of all their mutual controversies by arbitration. This effected will be one of the greatest achievements in behalf of Christian civilization belonging to this glorious nineteenth century.

Following the conclusion of the war with China has come great internal development in Japan. It is accompanied by a reaching out for foreign commerce, evidenced in our own sight by the starting of a steamship line, calling at Honolulu, between her ports and the United States. Japanese lines to Australia and Europe have also been inaugurated this year. Japan has not found all the prizes of the war easy to hold. She has met with trouble in Formosa, and is supplanted in Korea, whose administration was what made her attack China, by the influence of Russia. The tour of Europe and America by the aged Viceroy of China, Li Hung Chang, has occasioned universal amusement. It may be expected also to have results of internal improvement in China.

Italy has received a bad down-setting by having to accept terms from King Menelik of Abyssinia, to conquer whom she had vainly wasted much valiant blood and money that had better have been spent at home.

Canada has had a change of government, the Liberal party succeeding to power after eighteen years of uninterrupted Conservative rule. At the head of the administration is a Frenchman, Wilfred Laurier, whose eminent ability and high character are recognized by the whole Dominion.

Queen Victoria has passed a point in her reign which makes it the longest of any sovereign that has ever sat on the throne of the British Empire. Should she live until June 20 next, she will have completed a reign, most glorious in itself, of sixty years, and the event will be fitly celebrated throughout her vast dominions. Throughout the world the year 1896 may be said to have been one rather of preparation for great events than of their actual consummation.

An Appropriate Emblem.

The American buffalo exemplifies to the fullest extent the elements of hearty rugged strength in animal life, and the Buffalo Brewery Co. have made a peculiarly appropriate selection of a trademark in choosing this animal to represent its productions, in that the tonic and refreshing properties of the Buffalo Beer promote health and invigorate the system, producing a similar condition of hardy strength in the human frame. The Royal, Cosmopolitan and Pacific saloons are the media of distribution for this famous brew to an appreciative public, and the interchangeable check is the passport at any of these favorite resorts. Drink "Buffalo" only.

Removal Notice.

Today's edition of the BULLETIN is being printed earlier than usual in order to allow time for the removal of the type, material and presses of the office from the esplanade to more convenient premises in the rear of the BULLETIN's business office, 609 King street. These premises were formerly occupied by E. A. Williams but have lately been leased and fitted up as composing, press and editorial rooms for this paper. It is hoped that the work of removal will be completed in time to allow of the printing of Saturday's paper in the new quarters.

W. W. DIMOND'S

The holiday season has been one of exceptional and unexpected prosperity to us. For weeks past we have been calling attention to fancy goods as well as those of an ornamental character. We might have advertised strictly useful articles, but people as a rule, draw the line at cumbersome presents placed in the hosiery hung beside the hearth. A Jewel stove, for instance, would be injurious to the average Honolulu stocking, but it would have been most acceptable in the homes of a great many people here.

We have just received a very large invoice of these stoves in all sizes, from the smallest to the largest made at the factory. Our prices for these stoves are so reasonable that one of them should be in every home in Honolulu.

Our method of selling to island customers is an innovation to the people of the islands; the price of the stove in our store is the same at any shipping port in the islands—we pay the freight from Honolulu.
